

CASE DIGEST: AFGE, Loc. 2344, 73 FLRA 765 (2023).

The Arbitrator issued an award finding the Agency did not violate the parties' collective-bargaining agreement by allowing a supervisor, instead of bargaining-unit employees, to work overtime. The Union filed exceptions to the award on essence, contrary-to-law, and bias grounds. The Authority partially dismissed the Union's contrary-to-law and bias exceptions because the Union raised arguments that it failed to present to the Arbitrator. Because the Union's remaining arguments failed to demonstrate that the award was deficient, the Authority denied the remaining exceptions.
